

Executive Leadership Training Seminar

February 2-5, 2009

OEDI ADVANCED TRAINING Seaside Convention Center

This exceptional training is sponsored by the Oregon Executive Development Institute (OEDI), open to all public safety personnel and meets DPSST requirements for executive certification.

The cost is $50, which includes the full day of training, luncheon and banquet dinner.

February 2, 2009

- | | |
|-------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:00am – 8:15am | Welcome and Introduction |
| 8:15am – 8:55pm | Strategic Execution Team (SET): Organizational Change to an Intelligence Agency
Supervisory Special Agent Richard K. Werder, FBI |
| 8:55am – 9:10 | Break |
| 9:10am – 10:10am | Know Your Domain: The Fight Against Domestic Terrorism
Supervisory Special Agent Michael Caputo, FBI |
| 10:10am – 11:15am | Jailhouse Intelligence Initiative
Public Corruption Case Study: FCI Sheridan
Special Agent John D. Hallock, FBI |
| 11:15am – 11:30am | Break |
| 11:30am – 12:30pm | Mortgage Fraud: How Our Own Neighbors Have Threatened Our Economy
Supervisory Special Agent Joe Boyer, FBI
Assistant United States Attorney Lance Caldwell |
| 12:30pm – 1:30pm | Hosted Lunch |
| 1:30pm – 3:30pm | The Role of the Media in Child Abductions
Case Study: Elizabeth Smart
Special Agent Mick Fennerty, FBI |
| 3:30pm – 5:00pm | Proactive Racketeering Investigations
How They're Applied to the Gang Problem in Your Community
Assistant Special Agent in Charge Page McBeth, Oregon DOJ
Assistant Attorney General Matt McCauley, Oregon DOJ |
| 5:30pm – 8:00pm | OEDI Board Meeting and Banquet Dinner – Riverview Room A,B,C |