

Executive Leadership Training Seminar (E.L.T.S.) February 9-11, 2010

Oregon Executive Development Institute Presents OEDI ADVANCED Seaside Convention Center February 8, 2010

This exceptional training is open to all public safety personnel and meets DPSST requirements for on-going training,
The cost is $75, which includes the full day of training, luncheon and banquet dinner.

- | | |
|-------------------|---|
| 8:00am – 8:15am | Welcome and Introduction |
| 8:15am – 10:00am | Mortgage Fraud: Back by Demand - An exploration of the newest trends in the biggest fraud in American history ever to impact to our economy, and the new strategies employed to detect and correct fraud in the housing market.
Supervisory Special Agent Joe Boyer, FBI
Assistant United States Attorney Lance Caldwell |
| 10:00am – 10:15am | Break |
| 10:15am – 11:45am | Liaisons & The Important Role of Information/Intelligence Sharing: An overview of recognizing, exploiting and pushing information across organizational boundaries in an intelligence-hungry world.
Intelligence Analyst Brent Bowman, FBI |
| 11:45am – 12:45pm | Hosted Lunch |
| 12:45pm – 1:45pm | Security Threat Management: Oregon Department of Corrections' innovative program for managing its greatest security threats, including prison gangs and other high alert inmates. This presentation will explore the connection between high alert inmates and our communities and DOC's new Intelligence Unit and its partnership with federal, state and local law enforcement.
Chief Daryl Borello, Oregon Department of Corrections, Special Investigations Unit |
| 1:45pm – 2:00pm | Break |
| 2:00pm – 3:45pm | The Bombing of Pan Am Flight 103, Lockerbie, Scotland: A case Study
Special Agent Ed Marchman, FBI Bomb Technician |
| 3:45pm – 4:00pm | Break |
| 4:00pm – 5:00pm | Trends in Health Care Fraud: Back by demand - Dishonor in an honor system – An update on fraud trends, changing victimology and the impact of reform.
Special Agent Sandra Flint, FBI |
| 5:30pm – 8:00pm | OEDI General Membership Meeting and Banquet Dinner
Note, the banquet dinner is open to all OEDI members and training attendees
Riverview Room A, B, C, No-Host Bar |