

The Oregon Executive Development Institute (OEDI)
Presents

OEDI SESSION XXII
March 14-19, 2010

- ❖ A 6-day, intensive in-residence leadership training featuring nationally renowned instructors, networking events and first-class accommodations. The training emphasizes scenario-based, hands-on executive leadership through relationship building and interpersonal skills development to enhance personal and organizational performance with an underlying theme of servant leadership. Note, if you cannot stay on-site for the entire 6 days of the session, please do not apply.
- ❖ Who Should Apply? – Current and future public safety and military executives/leaders and segments of the private sector, including Higher Ed, having a direct relationship with public safety and the furtherance of OEDI's goals and objectives.
- ❖ Graduate level college credits available to interested attendees

LOCATION

OEDI SESSION XXII will be held at Sun River Resort in Sun River, Oregon, a premier training site offering special accommodations for OEDI's unique program. The rural setting and first class facilities allow participants to concentrate on the educational experience and networking opportunities fundamental to relationship building, a cornerstone to the session.

OEDI Session XXII is presented in partnership with the Oregon Department of Public Safety Standards and Training (DPSST), the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), George Fox University and the Oregon Executive Development Institute
