This Interactive web-based training course uses history as a source of tangible leadership examples. Centered on real-world application of leadership theories and concepts in crisis situations, this course is specifically designed for managers and executive level professionals. The purpose of this course is to help managers, executives and decision-makers develop the skills necessary to make sound leadership decisions when preparing and planning for critical situations in their communities. This course features self-paced training that requires active participation in on-screen and off-screen activities.

This on-line, fully interactive executive leadership course allows you to work through the course at your own pace. You can stop at any time and rejoin the course where you left off until completed. When the course is completed, you can print a certificate of completion, fill out an F-6 and send to DPSST.
